Numbers 30.

The following is a brief overview of the main topics.
Thankyou for visiting; Bible House Of Grace.

Statutes for when a person makes a Vow (Promise) before the LORD.

Vows regarding a man.

When a man made a vow to the LORD by a pledge he was not to break his word, he was to do everything according to what he had promised.

Vows', regarding a daughter and her father says nothing.

When a daughter in her youth made a vow to the LORD and bound herself by a pledge, if her father heard it and said nothing to her, all his daughters' vows would stand.

Vows' regarding a daughter and her father opposes it.

When a daughter in her youth vows to the LORD and binds herself by a pledge if her father opposes his daughter on the day that he hears of it, no vow of the daughter would stand, the LORD would forgive the daughter because her father opposed her.

Vows' regarding a woman and her husband says nothing.

When a married woman made a vow of any thoughtless utterance and binds herself to a pledge, if her husband heard of it and said nothing to his wife on the day that he heard it all his wives vows would stand.

Vows' regarding a woman and her husband opposes it.

When a married woman made a vow of any thoughtless utterance and binds herself to a pledge, if her husband heard of it and he opposes his wife on the day that he heard it all his wives vows would be made void, the LORD would forgive the man's wife.

Vows regarding a widow or divorced woman and her husband said nothing.

When a widow or a divorced woman made a vow of anything it would stand against the widow, but if he husband heard of it (when he was with her) and did not oppose her he establishes her vows, all the widow's vows would stand.

Vows regarding a widow or divorced woman and her husband opposed it.

When a widow or a divorced woman made a vow of anything it would stand against the widow, but if her husband heard of it (when he was with her) and opposed it then he makes her vows void, none of the widow's vows would stand, because her husband had made them void by opposing her, the LORD will forgive her.

The husband had the power to establish or make void the woman's vow.

End.
