Ecclesiastes 8.

(A brief overview of the main topics).

---

INTRODUCTION: Ecclesiastes is a brilliant book that gives an overall view of human life on earth viewed as a collective whole. Its primary focus is the vanity of life on earth without God. It is viewed as vanity because what happens to the fool happens to the wise the same events (i.e., troubles, sickness, disasters, sorrows etc.), and ultimately death comes to the rich and the poor, the noble and the lowly, the wise and the fool alike and life continues on as it always has. (See also the introduction to chapter one).

NOTE: for information of people, places and the meaning of words see Map Locations and People of the Bible, and Bible Dictionary on Website Menu.

The glory of wisdom: makes the face shine and changes the hardness of the heart.

Wisdom and kings: do not stand against a king because whatever they please, they do, and their word is supreme. Whoever keeps the king's command will not know his wrath, those who are wise will know the proper time, and the just way to change a thing.

The day of death: no man or woman knows how to retain life or has power over the day of death.

Delayed punishment: because the sentence against an evil deed is not executed speedily, the heart of men and women is fully set upon doing evil, but just because life is prolonged and judgment delayed it does not mean they will be granted eternal life.

The world is not just: there are righteous people who suffer because of the deeds of the wicked and there are wicked people who are blessed, because of the deeds of the righteous. This is also a vanity that takes place on earth.

Good and evil deeds: though a sinner has no fear of God and does evil and his life is prolonged it will not be well with them because God will not prolong their life, but for those who fear God (referring to those who do what is good and right) it will go well, meaning God will prolong their life (i.e., raise them to eternal life).

Injustice on earth: there are righteous people to whom evil happens because of the deeds of the wicked, and there are wicked people who benefit because of the deeds of the righteous this also is vanity that takes place on earth.

Man's lot in life: the only good thing a person separated from God has is to work, eat and drink and be joyful, for the few days God has given them to live.

God's ways on earth: cannot be found out neither can the work of God that is done under the sun be discovered no matter how much a person may study or how much time they spend seeking they will not find it out. Even though a wise person claims to know God's ways under the sun they cannot find it out. This is because there are too many contradictions and exceptions to the general rules and laws of an event or a thing to work out God's way on earth.
