Thankyou for visiting; Bible House Of Grace.

THE NAZIRITE VOW AND HEAD COVERINGS.

The Vow of a Nazirite (it could be a man or a woman) was to separate oneself to the LORD. When either a man or a woman made a Nazirite vow (a special vow) to separate themselves to the LORD, they were to separate themselves from vinegar made from wine and the juice of grapes and wine and any strong drink. All the days of their vow of separation they were to eat nothing that is produced by the grapevine not even the seeds or the skins. All the days of their vow of separation, no razor was to touch their head until the time was completed that they vowed to separate themselves to the LORD, they were to let the locks of their hair grow long and not go near the dead body of their father, mother, brother or sister, if they died, they were to keep themselves clean, because their separation to God was on their head, all the days of their separation they were holy to the LORD.

If anyone died suddenly beside them and their consecrated head was defiled, the previous period of their separation would be void because their separation period had been defiled, because of this they were to shave their head on the 7th day of their cleansing, on the 8th day they were to bring to the priest at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting two Turtledoves or two Pigeons. The priest was to offer one for a Sin offering and the other for a Burnt (cooked) offering to make Atonement because they had sinned because of the dead body, they were to consecrate their head that same day (the 8th day) and separate themselves to the LORD and begin the days of their separation again by bringing a male lamb a year old for a Guilt offering.

The law for the Nazirite when the time of their separation had been completed: -

- They were to be brought to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and bring a gift to the LORD.
- One male lamb a year old without blemish for a Burnt offering.
- One ewe lamb a year old without blemish as a Sin offering.
- One Ram without blemish as a Peace offering.
- A basket of unleavened bread, loaves of fine flour mixed with oil and unleavened wafers smeared with oil.
- A Grain offering.
- The Drink offering.

THE WAVE OFFERING.

The priest was to bring the offerings before the LORD and offer them to the LORD and the Nazirite was to shave their consecrated head at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, then take the hair from their consecrated head and put it on the fire that is under the sacrifice of the Peace offering.

The Priest would then take: -

- The shoulder of the Ram after it is boiled.
- One unleavened Loaf and Wafer out of the basket.

The priest would then put them on the hands of the Nazirite (after they had shaved the hair of their consecration) and wave them for a Wave offering before the LORD. The shoulder of the Ram, the Loaf of unleavened Bread and the unleavened Wafer together with the Breast that was waved and the Thigh that was contributed were a holy portion for the priest, after the offerings were waved the Nazirite was able to drink wine.

All the above was the offering of the Nazirite Vow.

If they were wealthy and offered a Vow above the Nazirite Vow they were to offer it in addition to the Nazirite Vow, all Vows were to be offered in exact accordance with the Vow that a person made.

The LORD told Moses to tell Aaron and his Sons to Bless the People of Israel.

Aaron and his Sons were to say to the people the LORD bless you and keep you, the LORD make his face to shine upon you and be gracious to you, the LORD lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace, so Aaron and his sons put the LORD'S name upon the people of Israel and the LORD would bless Israel.

End.
