PROMISE OF THE LAND OF CANAAN.

The LORD told Moses to tell the people of Israel, when they cross the Jordan River and enters into the land of Canaan they are to: -

- Drive out all the inhabitants of the land.
- Destroy all their figured stones and their metal images and demolish all their high places.
- Take possession of the land and settle in it.
- Inherit the land by lot according to their clans.
- A large tribe give a large inheritance and to a small tribe a small inheritance.

Wherever the lot fell for a tribe that would be that tribe's area or location of land they inherited the land according to the size of the tribe.

If Israel did not drive out the inhabitants of the land those who remained would not only be barbs in Israel's eyes and thorns in Israel's sides but would trouble Israel in the land where they dwell and the LORD would do to Israel as He thought to do with the people originally in the land.
