

Welcome to: - Bible House of Grace.

God, through His Son Jesus, provides eternal grace for our failures and human limitations.

Ecclesiastes 11.

(2014)

The Bible not only reveals God's eternal plans purposes and promises
But also shows how you can know God for yourself.

Teach it, don't demand it.

Ecclesiastes 11.

(A brief overview of the main topics).

INTRODUCTION: Ecclesiastes is a brilliant book that gives an overall view of human life on earth viewed as a collective whole. Its primary focus is the vanity of life on earth without God. It is viewed as vanity because what happens to the fool happens to the wise the same events (i.e., troubles, sickness, disasters, sorrows etc.), and ultimately death comes to the rich and the poor, the noble and the lowly, the wise and the fool alike and life continues on as it always has. (See also the introduction to chapter one).

NOTE: for information of people, places and the meaning of words see Map Locations and People of the Bible, and Bible Dictionary on Website Menu.

This chapter is full of various proverbs the following are just a few.

Works of charity: cast your bread upon the waters for you will find it after many days, meaning be a giving person and not a selfish one.

Provide for the future: give a portion to a trust fund because you know not what disaster may happen on earth.

Delaying a goal: those who observe the wind will not sow, and those who regard the clouds will not reap meaning, if you wait for circumstance to be perfect you will never begin anything.

God's ways: no one knows the way the spirit comes to the bones in the womb of a woman with child, likewise no one knows the work and ways of God who created everything.

Covering your bases: sow your seed in the morning and continue doing other work in the afternoon because you do not know which will prosper.

Life is not always easy: a person should rejoice in all their years; but the days of darkness will be many.

Youthful behaviour: rejoice in the days of your youth, but know that God will bring you into judgment.

End.
