Thankyou for visiting; Bible House Of Grace.

Israel makes a Vow to the LORD.

Israel made a vow to the LORD saying if the LORD will give the Canaanites into their hand they will devote their cities to destruction, the LORD obeyed the voice of Israel and gave Israel victory over the Canaanites and they devoted their cities to destruction, the name of the place was called Hormah, from Mount Hor Israel set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom.

Israel speaks against God and Moses.

The people became impatient on the way and spoke against God and against Moses saying why has God and Moses brought them out of Egypt to die in the wilderness, there is no food; no water the manna is loathsome and worthless food.

THE BRONZE SERPENT.

Then the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, they bit the people and many of the people of Israel died, they then told Moses, they had sinned, by speaking against the LORD and against Moses and asked Moses to pray that the LORD would take the serpents from them.

Moses makes a Fiery Serpent and places it on a Pole.

Moses prayed and the LORD told him to make a fiery serpent and place it on a pole and when those who were bitten looked at the fiery serpent on the pole they would live. Moses made the bronze serpent and set it on a pole and everyone who was bitten looked at the bronze serpent on the pole and lived.

The Journey of Israel; the people of Israel set out and went to Oboth, from Oboth they went to Iye-abarim in the wilderness that is opposite Moab, from Iye-abarim they went to the Valley of Zered, from the Valley of Zered they went to the other side of the Arnon which is the border of Moab, From Arnon they went to Beer. Beer is the well that the LORD said to Moses, "Gather the people together, so I may give them water".

Israel Sings a Song to the Well.

Numbers 21:17-18 --- ¹⁷Then Israel sang this song: "Spring up, O well!—Sing to it!— the well that the princes dug, that the nobles of the people delved, with the scepter and with their staffs."

From the wilderness of Beer they went to Mattanah, From Mattanah they went on to Nahaliel, From Nahaliel they went on to Bamoth, From Bamoth they went onto the valley lying in the region of Moab by the top of Pisgah that looks down on the desert.

Sihon the King of Sihom and of the Amorites.

Israel asked Sihon the king of Sihom and of the Amorites permission to travel through his land, Sihon was a powerful king of the Amorites who had fought against the former king of Moab and taken all his land as far as the Arnon.

Because of the power of Sihon the Ballad Singers Sang the following Song.

Numbers 27:26-28 ---- ²⁶Come to Heshbon (the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites) let it be built; let the city of Sihon be established. For fire (the king of Sihon was the fire) came out from Heshbon, flame (the king of Sihon was the flame) from the city of Sihon. It devoured Ar of Moab, and swallowed the heights of the Arnon.

Israel asks Sihon the king of Sihon to let them pass through His land.

Israel tells Sihon the king, they will only go by the King's Highway until they have passed through his territory and will not go into his fields or vineyards or drink the water of a well, but Sihon gathered his people and went out against Israel in the wilderness and fought against them and would not allow Israel to pass through his territory.

Israel defeats Sihon the king of the Amorites.

Israel defeated Sihon the king of the Amorites with the edge of the sword and took possession of his land (the land of the Amorites) and settled in his cities (Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites).

Israel defeats Og the King of Bashan.

Moses sent men to spy out Jazer and they captured its villages and dispossessed the Amorites who were there, then Israel travelled to Bashan and Og the king of Bashan came against them to battle at Edrei, but the LORD told Moses not to fear Og, because they would do to Og the same as they did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon and so Israel defeated Og and possessed his land.

End.
