THE DAUGHTERS OF ZELOPHEHAD REQUEST AN INHERITANCE OF LAND.

Zelophehad and his daughters were from the clans of Manasseh the son of Joseph. Zelophehad was not given an inheritance of land because he had no sons, but he did have four daughters named, Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.

His daughters go to Moses, Eleazar (the priest) and the Chiefs of the congregation and tell them to give them a possession of land among their father's brothers because their father Zelophehad died in the wilderness for his own sin, he was not with Korah and those who gathered themselves together against the LORD, so why should the name of Zelophehad be taken away from his clan (Manasseh) because he had no son? Moses took Zelophehad daughters case before the LORD and the LORD told Moses that the daughters of Zelophehad were right and tells him to transfer a part of their father's brothers inheritance to them.

Laws regarding land for a man who has no Sons or Daughters.

If a man dies and had no son then his inheritance was to be transferred to his daughter, if he had no daughter, then his inheritance was to be given to his brothers, if he had no brothers, then his inheritance was to be given to his father's brothers, if his father had no brothers, then his inheritance was to be given to the nearest kinsman of his clan.

The reason Moses never entered the Promised Land.

When the congregation quarrelled in the wilderness of Zin at the waters of Meribah in Kadesh, Moses failed to uphold the LORD as Holy at the waters before the people eyes he rebelled against the Word of the LORD by striking the rock twice instead of speaking to it.

Moses sees the Promised Land.

The LORD told Moses to go up the mountain of Abarim and see the Promised Land and then he would be gathered to his people as his brother Aaron was

A shepherd to replace Moses.

Moses asks the LORD to appoint a man over the congregation who will go out before the congregation and come in before them, who would lead the congregation out and bring them in so the congregation of the LORD would not be as sheep that have no shepherd.

Joshua is appointed to replace Moses.

The LORD told Moses to take Joshua because the Spirit dwells in him, have him stand before Eleazar the priest and the entire congregation, then lay his hands on Joshua and commission him with authority in the sight of all the people of Israel so that they would obey Joshua. When Joshua was to make a judgment he was to stand before Eleazar the priest, and he would inquire of the Urim before the LORD, so that at the word of Eleazar Israel would go out and come in.

Moses did all that the LORD had directed him.
