

Welcome to: - Bible House of Grace.

God, through His Son Jesus, provides eternal grace for our failures and human limitations.

Ecclesiastes 4.

(2014)

The Bible not only reveals God's eternal plans purposes and promises
But also shows how you can know God for yourself.

Teach it, don't demand it.

Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man. As to such I neither claim special knowledge or perfect understanding.

If you think items presented on this site to be in error, please let me know and I will gladly reconsider the content.

Ecclesiastes 4.

(A brief overview of the main topics).

INTRODUCTION: Ecclesiastes is a brilliant book that gives an overall view of human life on earth viewed as a collective whole. Its primary focus is the vanity of life on earth without God. It is viewed as vanity because what happens to the fool happens to the wise the same events (i.e., troubles, sickness, disasters, sorrows etc.), and ultimately death comes to the rich and the poor, the noble and the lowly, the wise and the fool alike and life continues on as it always has. (See also the introduction to chapter one).

NOTE: for information of people, places and the meaning of words see Map Locations and People of the Bible, and Bible Dictionary on Website Menu.

Oppression and comfort: the oppressor has the power and the oppressed have tears but both have no one to comfort them.

The dead: those who have died are more fortunate than the living and those who have never been born are better than both because they have not seen all the evil on the earth. This clearly shows that nothing changes from generation to generation since the world thousands of years later is still filled with evil.

Work and peace: better is a handful of quietness than two hands full of work and a striving after worldly riches.

The advantage of two: two are better than one for if one falls the other will lift them up, while those on their own one has no one to help. When two lie together, they keep warm, but how can one keep warm alone? A man might prevail against one who is alone, but two will withstand him.

Excessive work: a single man or woman who has no wife, husband or family spends all their time in work their eyes are never satisfied with riches. They never ask, "For whom am I working and depriving myself of pleasure?"

All is vanity: because every man and woman ends up in the grave and is forgotten.

Wisdom, kings and the poor: better is a poor person who is wise than a king who no longer takes advice.

End.