The Bible not only reveals God's eternal plans purposes and promises
But also shows how you can know God for yourself.

Perish in the Old Testament.

Topics.

- Perish in the Old Testament.
- Perish in the New Testament.

NOTE: the purpose of this study is not to do an in depth study on each topic, but simply to discover if there are any verses that link the word perish to eternal torment or even imply eternal torment. Since the majority of this study is simply a list of Scriptures that uses the word perish the following is the conclusion of the sum total of all the Scriptures in the Old and New Testament that use the word perish and perishing.

in the Old Testament the word perish comes from the Hebrew word 'abad', and from Strong's Concordance means to be lost; to destroy; to abolish; to destroy; to put to an end; to put out of the way entirely; to ruin or render useless; to kill or declare that a person must be put to death and to give one over to eternal death in the grave. In the New Testament the word perish comes from the Greek word apollumi and from Strong's Concordance means to destroy fully, to perish, to lose and to die.

The Hebrew and Greek meaning of the word perish shows that it carries the idea of a person totally perishing and of God punishing and destroying the wicked until they utterly perish meaning they are judged to eternal death (i.e., total extinction).

Jesus said: -

- God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life (John 3:16).

And told his disciples: -

- I give my sheep eternal life, and they shall never perish (John 10:28).

Jesus in these Scriptures is contrasting eternal life with perishing this is because in the context of these verses the word perishing refers to eternal death (i.e., total extinction). There are no Scriptures that use the word, perish that are linked to eternal torment or even imply eternal torment. This is because the traditional teaching that those outside of Christ will exist in some form of conscious spirit state and be painfully and cruelly tortured by eternal evil spirit creatures called demons in a place full of fiery flames which will forever burn their bodies for all eternity so that they will never be free of the most extreme agony is a gross misunderstanding of the word hell and a gross miss-representation of the nature and character of God.

Following are all the Scriptures from the Old and New Testament that use the word perish and perishing.

OLD TESTAMENT

Perish: in the Old Testament comes from the Hebrew word 'abad', and from Strong's Concordance means to be lost; to destroy; to abolish; to destroy; to put to an end; to put out of the way entirely; to ruin or render useless; to kill or declare that a person must be put to death and to give one over to eternal death in the grave.

The following verses show, that perish means to die: -

Numbers 17:10-12 ---- ¹⁰the LORD said to Moses, "Bring Aaron's rod back before the Testimony, to be kept as a sign against the rebels, that you may put their complaints away from Me, lest they die."
¹¹Thus did Moses; just as the LORD had commanded him, so he did. ¹²So the children of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, "Surely we die, we perish we all perish!"

Numbers 24:20-24 --- ²⁰Then he looked on Amalek, and he took up his oracle and said: "Amalek was first among the nations, But shall be last until he perish." --- NOW GO TO VERSE --- ²³Then he took up his oracle and said: "Alas! Who shall live when God does this? ²⁴ But ships shall come from the coasts of Cyprus, And they shall afflict Asshur and afflict Eber, And so shall Amalek, until he perishes."

Job 20:4-9 ----- ⁴Do you not know this of old, Since man was placed on earth, ⁵That the triumphing of the wicked is short, And the joy of the hypocrite is but for a moment? ⁶Though his haughtiness mounts up to the heavens, And his head reaches to the clouds, ⁷Yet he will perish forever like his own refuse; Those who have seen him will say, 'Where is he?' ⁸He will fly away like a dream, and not be found; Yes, he will be chased away like a vision of the night.

Job 34:15 ----- ¹⁵All flesh would perish together, And man would return to dust.

Psalms 9:18 ----- ¹⁸For the needy shall not always be forgotten; The expectation of the poor shall not perish forever.

Psalms 49:20 ----- ²⁰A man who is in honour, yet does not understand, Is like the beasts that perish.

Psalms 68:2-3 ----- ²As smoke is driven away, So drive them away; As wax melts before the fire, So let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

Isaiah 26:14 ----- ¹⁴They are dead, they will not live; They are deceased, they will not rise. Therefore You have punished and destroyed them, And made all their memory to perish.

Jeremiah 10:15 ----- ¹⁵They are futile, a work of errors; In the time of their (idols) punishment they shall perish.

SUMMARY: we began this study not to do an in depth study on each topic, but simply to discover if there are any verses that teach or link the word perish to eternal torment. These verses show that the word perish in the Old and New Testament carries the sense of totally perishing and of God punishing and destroying the wicked until they utterly perish meaning they are judged to eternal death (i.e., total extinction).

There are many other Scriptures in the New Testament using the word perish, but they all carry the same meaning as the above verses. There are no Scriptures that uses the word perish that teach or are linked to everlasting torment. The book of Revelations talks of a second death and of the false prophet; the devil; death and hades (the grave) and whoevers name is not found written in the book of life, being judged by God Himself and thrown into a Lake of Fire which is called the Second Death. The Lake of Fire is a symbol of eternal death (i.e., total and utter extinction). It is at this judgment to the Lake of Fire that those who have denied God and the wicked will utterly perish.
