Leviticus 7.

The following is a brief overview of the main topics.
Thankyou for visiting; Bible House Of Grace.

Laws the LORD gave Moses regarding: -

- Peace and Vow offerings.
- Freewill and Wave offerings.

Laws for the Guilt Offering.

The Guilt Offering was to be killed in the same place as the Burnt offering it was most holy. The blood of the Guilt offering was to be thrown against the sides of the Altar, the fat was to be offered, but the fat of the tail, the entrails, the two kidneys and the long lobe of the liver was to be removed because they were eaten. The Priest was to burn (cook) the entrails, kidney, liver and all the fat on them on the Altar as a food offering to the LORD, every male priest could eat of it in a holy place, as it is most holy.

KEY.

The Guilt offering is just like the Sin offering; there is one law for them both, the Priest who offers any man's Burnt or Guilt offering could have the skin for himself. Every Grain offering baked in the oven and all that is prepared on a Pan or a Griddle belonged to the Priest who offered it. Every Grain offering, mixed with oil or dry was to be shared equally among all the sons of Aaron.

Laws of the Peace Offering (Or sacrifices that a person offers to the LORD).

If the Peace offering was offered as a thanksgiving sacrifice it was to be unleavened wafers mixed or smeared with oil, or loaves of fine flour well mixed with oil. The Peace offering was to be with loaves of leavened bread, one loaf from each Peace offering was to be offered as a gift to the LORD.

The offering belonged to the Priest who threw the blood on the Altar. The flesh of the peace offering was to be eaten on the day of the offering and none of it was to be left until morning. Any person who eats the flesh of the Peace offerings while they are unclean was to be cut off from the people.

A Vow Offering and a Freewill Offering.

The sacrifice of a Vow offering or Freewill offering, was to be eaten on the day of the offering, but if any remained on the next day it was to be eaten. If anyone ate the flesh of the peace offering on the third day they would not be accepted as it was tainted it was to be burned up with fire.

General Laws for animal Offerings.

- Flesh that touches anything unclean was to be burned and not eaten.
- No fat, of ox or sheep or goat was to be eaten.
- The fat of an animal that dies of itself or of one that is torn by beasts may be put to any other use but must not be eaten.
- Whoever eats any blood of fowl or of an animal was to be cut off from their people.
- Whoever offers a Peace offering to the LORD was to bring it with their own hands.

The Wave Offering of the Breast and Thigh.

The fat with the breast was to be waved as a Wave offering before the LORD, the Priest was to burn the fat on the Altar, but the breast was to be food for Aaron and his sons. The right thigh was to be given to the Priest as a contribution from the sacrifice of the Peace offering. Whoever among the sons of Aaron offered the blood of the peace offering and the fat was to have the right thigh for his portion.

The breast and the thigh that is waved and contributed from the people the LORD gave to Aaron and his sons out of His Peace offering. From the day that the Priest was anointed the LORD commanded Israel to give them the breast and the thigh for food. The breast and the thigh were to be a perpetual (food) offering for the priests throughout their generations.

These are all the laws that the LORD gave Moses on Mount Sinai.
