Bible House of Grace.

God, through His Son Jesus, provides eternal grace for our failures and human limitations.

God used Men and Women Who had Human Flaws. (2013)

The Bible not only reveals God's eternal plans purposes and promises
But also shows how you can know God for yourself.

Teach it, don't demand it.

Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man. As to such I neither claim special knowledge or perfect understanding.

God used Men and Women who had Human Flaws.

INTRODUCTION: the following list shines a spotlight on the truth that the flaws within in a man or woman's character or the doubts they have about themselves or difficult circumstances do not prevents God from working through their life or using them for His eternal purposes.

Abraham ----- Was old.
Jacob ----- Was insecure.
Leah ----- Was unattractive.
Joseph ----- Was abused.
Moses ----- Was not an eloquent speaker.
Gideon ----- Was poor.
Samson ----- Was codependent.
Rahab ----- Was immoral.
David ----- Had an affair and all kinds of family problems.
Elijah ----- Was suicidal.
Jeremiah ----- Was depressed.
Jonah ----- Was reluctant.
Naomi ----- Was a widow.
John the Baptist ----- Was eccentric to say the least.
Peter ----- Was impulsive and hot-tempered.
Martha ----- Worried a lot.
The Samaritan Woman ----- Had several failed marriages.
Zaccheus ----- Was unpopular.
Thomas ----- Had doubts.
Paul ----- Had poor health.
Timothy ----- Was timid.

That's quite a variety of misfits but God used each of them. Obviously this list shows that human flaws do not prevent God from achieving His eternal plan and purposes, but since our flaws can bring a bad testimony to God, the Lord Jesus Christ and the Christian faith every brother and sister in Christ should endeavor to do all they can to live a life that honors God and brings a good testimony to Christ and the Christian faith.
