MOSES CONSECRATES AARON AND HIS SONS.

Moses took Aaron and his sons, the garments, the anointing oil, the bull of the sin offering, the two rams and the basket of unleavened bread and assembled the entire congregation at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and washed Aaron and his sons with water. Then put the coat on Aaron and tied the sash around his waist, clothed him with the robe, put the ephod on Aaron and tied the skilfully woven band of the ephod around him binding it to him with the band. Moses placed the breastpiece on Aaron and in the breastpiece he put the Urim and the Thummim, he set the turban on Aaron's head, and on the front of the turban set the Golden Plate, the Holy Crown.

Notice; the Golden Plate was called the Holy Crown.

The following words from Strong's Concordance mean: -

Ephod; a girdle, the ephod or High-Priest's shoulder-piece (Generally an image).

Urim; lights, the brilliance of the figures in the High-Priest's breastplate (Flame as being the region of light).

Thummim; one of the objects in the High-Priest's breastplate as an emblem of complete Truth and Perfection (Innocence, integrity, perfect, simplicity, upright).

Consecrating the Tabernacle.

To consecrate the Tabernacle and all that was in it Moses took the anointing oil and anointed it and everything that was in it and to consecrate the Altar and all its Utensils, the Basin and its Stand, Moses sprinkled some of the anointing oil on them seven times.

Consecrating Aaron and his Sons with a Bull.

To consecrate Aaron Moses poured some of the anointing oil on his head and clothed Aaron's sons with coats, tied sashes around their waists and bound caps on them, had Aaron and his sons lay their hands on the head of the Bull of the Sin offering and kill it. Moses then took the blood and with his finger put it on the Horns of the Altar around it and purified the Altar, then poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the Altar and consecrated it to make Atonement for it. Moses burned (cooked) the entrails, the long lobe of the liver, the two kidneys with all their fat on the Altar. The bull, its skin, its flesh and its dung was taken outside the camp and burned.

The First Ram of the Burnt Offering.

Moses presented the first Ram of the Burnt (cooked) offering and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the Ram and killed it. Moses threw the blood against the sides of the Altar, cut the Ram into pieces and washed the entrails and the legs with water and placed the head, the pieces, the fat and the entire Ram on the Altar and burned (cooked) them, it was a burnt (cooked) offering with a pleasing aroma, a food offering for the LORD (meaning it became food for the Priests).

The Second Ram of Ordination.

Notice; the First Ram was for a Burnt Offering, while the Second Ram was for Ordination.

Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the second Ram of ordination and Moses killed it, he took some of the Ram's blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron's and his Sons right ear and the thumb of their right hand and the big toe of their right foot, then threw the blood against the sides of the Altar. Moses took the tail, the entrails the long lobe of the liver, the two kidneys with all their fat and the right thigh, then out of the basket of unleavened bread he took one unleavened loaf, one loaf of bread with oil, one wafer and placed them on the pieces of fat and on the right thigh. Then he put all these in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons and they waved them as a wave offering before the LORD.

Moses then took them from their hands and burned (cooked) them on the Altar with the burnt (cooked) offering. This was an ordination offering with a pleasing aroma, a food offering to the LORD (Meaning it became food for the Priests). This day Aaron and his sons did all the things that the LORD had commanded Moses to do to make Atonement for them.

General Laws of Ordination.

The Bull and the two Rams were an ordination and food offering with a pleasing aroma to the LORD (they became food for the Priests). Aaron and his sons were to boil the flesh (the acceptable parts of the sacrificial animal) at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and eat it and the bread that was in the basket of ordination. What remained of the flesh (the acceptable parts of the sacrificial animal) and the bread Aaron and his sons were to burn with fire.

It took seven days to ordain Aaron and his Sons.

Aaron and his sons were to remain within the entrance of the Tent of Meeting for seven days and nights so that they did not die. They were not to go outside the entrance of the Tent of Meeting (the Holy Place) until the days of their ordination was completed (Seven Days).

Moses Portion of the Ordination Offering.

Moses portion of the Ram of ordination was the breast he took it and waved it for a Wave offering before the LORD.
