Topics.

- The Tabernacle is Anointed and Consecrated.
- The Twelve Chiefs of Israel
- Offerings.

On the day when Moses had finished setting up the Tabernacle, all its furnishings, the Altar with all its utensils and had anointed and consecrated them all, the 12 chiefs of the tribes of Israel brought their offerings to the entrance of the Tabernacle before the LORD, 6 wagons, (1 wagon for every 2 of the chiefs) and 12 oxen (1 for each chief).

The 12 Chiefs Offerings Given to the Levites.

The LORD told Moses to accept the offerings so they could be used in the service of the Tent of Meeting and give them to the Levites, so Moses gave to the sons of Gershon 2 wagons and 4 oxen for them to use for their service, to the sons of Merari he gave 4 wagons and 8 oxen to be used for their service, under the direction of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest, but Moses gave nothing to the sons of Kohath because they were charged with the service of the holy things that had to be carried on the shoulder.

The 12 Chief's Offerings.

The LORD told Moses that each day 1 Chief was to offer his offerings for the dedication of the Altar, so on the same day the Altar was anointed the 12 chiefs offered their offering before the Altar for its dedication.
