Jesus was a Human Man.

(2013)

The Bible not only reveals God's eternal plans purposes and promises

But also shows how you can know God for yourself.

Teach it, don't demand it.

Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man. As to such I neither claim special knowledge or perfect understanding.

Jesus was a Human Man.

INTRODUCTION: every Scripture concerning salvation states that a sinner must believe that Jesus is the Son of God to be saved, there is not one verse in the entire Bible that says, "A sinner must believe Jesus is God to be saved," yet many worldwide believe that Jesus is God even though Jesus, the apostles and Paul all taught and proclaimed that we must believe Jesus is the Son of God to be saved and the following Scriptures clearly show that Jesus was a human man and not the immortal invisible eternal Almighty God the creator of all things and the source of all life who cannot die as mortals do since he is immortal and eternal.

- There is one God and one Mediator between God and men, the MAN Christ Jesus (1 Tim. 2:5).
- God has appointed a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness by the MAN whom he has ordained (Acts 17:31).
- By the one man's offense many died, much more the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one MAN, Jesus Christ, abounded to many (Rom. 5:15).
- Jesus of Nazareth, a MAN attested by God to you (Acts 2:22).
- Through this MAN is preached to you the forgiveness of sins (Acts 13:38).
- By man came death, by MAN also came the resurrection of the dead (1 Cor. 15:21).
- The first man was of the earth, made of dust; the second MAN is the Lord from heaven (1 Cor. 15:47).
- When the centurion, saw that Jesus breathed his last, he said, "Truly this MAN was the Son of God! (Mark 15:39).
- John performed no sign, but all the things that John spoke about this MAN were true (John 10:41).
- Some said, "Could not this MAN, who opened the eyes of the blind (John 11:37).
- It is expedient for us that one MAN should die for the people (John 11:50).
- Pilate said to them, "What accusation do you bring against this MAN? (John 18:29).
- Then they all cried again, saying, "Not this MAN, but Barabbas!" (John 18:40).
- Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said to them, "Behold the MAN!" (John 19:5).
- Jesus taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished and said, "Where did this MAN get this wisdom and these mighty works? (Matt. 13:54).
- Is this not the carpenter's son? Is not His mother called Mary? And His brothers James, Joses, Simon, and Judas? And his sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this MAN get all these things? (Matt. 13:54-56).
- Again Peter denied with an oath, "I do not know the MAN!" (Matt. 26:72).
- Peter began to curse and swear, saying, "I do not know the MAN!" (Matt. 26:74).
- While Pilate was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that just MAN, for I have suffered many things today in a dream because of him (Matt. 27:19).
- The officers answered, "No man ever spoke like this MAN!" (John 7:46).

- The Jews answered Him, saying, “For a good work we do not stone You, but for blasphemy, and because You, being a MAN, make Yourself God” (John 10:33).

Jesus did not say he was God it was the unbelieving Jews who accused him of saying this. What Jesus actually said was, “The works that I do in my Father's name bear witness about me and to those who believe in me I give eternal life, no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand because my Father is greater than all and I and the Father are one” (John 10:24-30) (John 10:24-30).

The fact Jesus says three times in these few verses that God is his Father shines a spotlight on the truth that he is not saying he is God. The words I and the Father are one does not mean that Jesus is God (as many believe), but that he and God are of one mind, it means whoever Jesus accepts God his heavenly Father will accept and whoever God accepts for salvation Jesus will accept it is in this sense that God the Father and Christ His Son are one it means they are one in mind and one in perfect love and one in perfect unity and one in eternal plans and purposes.

- Pilate sought to release Jesus, but the Jews cried out, saying, “If you let this MAN go, you are not Caesar’s friend (John 19:12).
- It was Caiaphas who advised the Jews that it was expedient that one MAN should die for the people (John 18:14).
- She bore a MALE Child who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron. And her Child was caught up to God and His throne (Rev. 12:5).

Words of Comfort and Encouragement: since the teaching that Jesus is God has such a strong hold on much of traditional Christianity the following will encourage and comfort faithful brothers and sisters in Christ who maybe in some doubt and unsure of what to believe concerning the Father and the Son. The Bible very clearly shows that even if Jesus was God no one has to know this to be saved to eternal life since there is not one verse in the entire Bible that states: -

- We must believe that Jesus is God to be saved.

Nor is there one verse from Genesis to Revelations that says: -

- Whoever believes that Jesus is God the Son will be saved.

In total contrast to this silence there are literally multitudes of Scriptures throughout the pages of the New Testament that very clearly proclaim: -

- We must believe that Jesus is the Son of God to be saved.

And that say: -

- Whoever believes that Jesus is the Son of God will be saved.

Surely if it was important to believe that Jesus was actually God to be saved to eternal life Jesus, the apostles and Paul would have told us at least once in all their teaching concerning salvation, but all we hear from Paul, the apostles and Jesus himself is them saying that we must believe that Jesus is the Son of God to be saved to eternal life.

Jesus himself said, “This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God ‘and’ Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent (John 17:3).
