Ecclesiastes 5.

(2014)

The Bible not only reveals God's eternal plans purposes and promises
But also shows how you can know God for yourself.

Teach it, don't demand it.

Ecclesiastes 5.

(A brief overview of the main topics).

INTRODUCTION: Ecclesiastes is a brilliant book that gives an overall view of human life on earth viewed as a collective whole. Its primary focus is the vanity of life on earth without God. It is viewed as vanity because what happens to the fool happens to the wise the same events (i.e., troubles, sickness, disasters, sorrows etc.), and ultimately death comes to the rich and the poor, the noble and the lowly, the wise and the fool alike and life continues on as it always has. (See also the introduction to chapter one).

NOTE: for information of people, places and the meaning of words see Map Locations and People of the Bible, and Bible Dictionary on Website Menu.

Listening to God: to draw near to God and listen is better than to offer the sacrifice of fools

Foolish speaking: let not your heart be hasty to utter a word before God, but let your words be few.

Achieving a dream: dreams and goals come with a lot of work and a fool's voice with many words.

Making a promise: when you vow a vow to God, do not delay paying it is better that you should not vow than that you should vow and not pay and sin.

Oppression and injustice: if you see the oppression of the poor and the violation of justice and righteousness, do not be amazed at the matter, for the high official is watched by a higher, and there are yet higher ones over them.

Land and fields: are cultivated and the land gains from a king's oppression of the poor and his violation of righteousness and justice.

Money and wealth: those who love money will not be satisfied with money, nor will those who love wealth, be satisfied with their income.

Possessions: when goods increase beyond what is needed they increase those who own them, but their only advantage is to satisfy the eyes.

Riches and sleep: sweet is the sleep of a labourer, whether they eat little or much, but the full stomach of the rich will not let them sleep.

God: God's blessing and gift: to those apart from Him, who work, and to those who He has given power, wealth and possessions and the gift to enjoy them, is to eat and drink and find enjoyment in all their possessions and all their work. The gift of God to men and women who are separated from Him is that they accept their lot and rejoice in their toil for the few days of their life that the LORD has given them.

End.
