Blondin
True Belief and the Niagara Falls

(2019)

Bible House of Grace contains an easy to read New and Old Testament commentary full of spiritual treasures and pearls, complete with an insightful resource guide illuminating God's love and grace.

Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

Blondin, True Belief and the Niagara Falls.

The following perfectly depicts true faith and true belief: it is said that a French man named Blondin who was famous for his daring and outstanding performance as a tightrope walker. (1824-1897). After walking across the Niagara Falls on a tightrope, asked the excited crowd if they believed he could safely return across the Niagara Falls on the tightrope, pushing a wheel barrow with someone in it, the crowd with roaring cheer and excitement shouted, "yes, they believed he and his passenger would safely reach the other side."

Once the crowd's exited cheer died down, Blondin asked, "Who will volunteer to be the passenger in the wheel barrow?" There was a deadly silence, no-one raised their hand, clearly, they all had doubts otherwise there would be no fear to trust the man who was asking for a volunteer.

This story beautifully shines a spotlight on the following three things:

FIRSTLY: the difference between saying something with our mouth and believing something in our heart.

SECONDLY: it should prompt all who confess to being a Christian to ask the question, "Is my trust for my eternal future solely upon the suffering, bloody and bleeding man who was cruelly and brutally nailed to the cross, and rose again by the power of God, or is my trust upon my own good works, and adhering to ceremonial rites, holy days, and keeping religious customs and traditions and such like things.

THIRDLY: is my faith simply a confession of the mouth or a deep-seated belief in the heart upon which my life is fully surrendered to?

- Romans 3:20-22: For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. ²¹ But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law, although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it— ²² the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction.

THE story is recorded in Microsoft Encarta 2006

As the founder of Bible House of Grace, I would like to thank the many Christian scholars, commentators and theologians who have gone before me, and the many today, who have freely made available their works to enhance the knowledge of the Bible to all people worldwide. It is only with the help of these faithful writers that much of Bible House of Grace exists as it does today.
