Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

Christianity Grows under Persecution.

One of the reasons Christianity grows during times of persecution, is because persecution manifests those who have true faith, it separates the false Christians from the true Christians, since no one who does not have the love of Christ and the grace of God dwelling in their heart is going to give themselves over to suffering.

Naturally a Gospel that proclaims, prosperity, success, health, and a charmed life attracts multitudes, Christian churches worldwide are crowded, since these are all things, we all desire, and though Christ knows his sheep, it is difficult for us to know who amongst Christendom (peoples and nations of the world that embrace the Christian religion, as a community sharing common ideals and assumptions) are truly Christian and who are not, because of this enormous growth.

When persecution, hardships, troubles, and sorrow come, those who are confessing to believe in Christ, for the worldly benefits they have been taught they can have are separated from those who truly belong to him, because those who are confessing Christ for their own selfish gain fall away when persecution and hardships come, whereas those who are truly devoted to Christ and understand the love he has for them, remain faithful, regardless of what troubles and hardships come across their path.

When others see self-sacrificing devotion and such deep love and honest faith many are drawn to Christ and to hear the Gospel. One of the great tools Satan uses to draw people away from the Christian faith, and the Lord Jesus Christ is prosperity, and the promise of it.

As the founder of Bible House of Grace, I would like to thank the many Christian scholars, commentators and theologians who have gone before me, and the many today, who have freely made available their works to enhance the knowledge of the Bible to all people worldwide. It is only with the help of these faithful writers that much of Bible House of Grace exists as it does today.
