

WELCOME TO BIBLE HOUSE OF GRACE

If you think items presented on this site to be in error, please let me know and I will gladly reconsider the content.

Christmas and
God's Gift to Us

(2019)

Bible House of Grace contains an easy to read New and Old Testament commentary full of spiritual treasures and pearls, complete with an insightful resource guide illuminating God's love and grace.

Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

Christmas and God's Gift to Us.

- Isaiah 9:6: For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

All faithful Christians in Christ celebrate Christmas to rejoice over God's most precious gift to us, the birth of the Lord Jesus Christ. He is the gift from God that came in simple wrapping, as well as a gift we do not deserve that God gave to all mankind, and that Christians celebrate. The gift of Christ was no afterthought, long before there was a stable in Bethlehem, before Adam and Eve ever set eyes on each other, and even before there existed a garden called Eden, God, in His eternal mind, and foreknowledge planned and purposed to send His Son to die on the cross of Calvary for the sins of mankind.

From the beginning, God knew humankind would fall short of His holiness, and His glory, this is why the Scriptures proclaim that Jesus Christ was slain from the foundation of the world. (Revelation 13:8). God decided from the very beginning that Christ would be born of the Virgin Mary, proclaim the Gospel of salvation, and manifest God's love and grace, then, die and rise again from the dead. God's gift to us, is Christ, for it is through faith in Him we are united with God, redeemed, and saved to eternal life. This gift, is what Christmas celebrations are all about.

It is not about the exact date of the day being right or wrong, but about celebrating Jesus coming near to us, so we could come near to God, and be saved to eternal life, not by works, but by grace. Though faithful Christians in Christ may celebrate with tinsel, and shopping and gifts under a tree, they are fully aware, Christmas is not about any of these things, but about the gift God gave on the bloodstained cross of Calvary, where Christ died for our sins, to give us the gift of eternal life. This is the gift Christ has accomplished for all who come to him, and the gift He extends to all who will receive it, and whoever does receive it, will experience the merriest Christmas of all.

As the founder of Bible House of Grace, I would like to thank the many Christian scholars, commentators and theologians who have gone before me, and the many today, who have freely made available their works to enhance the knowledge of the Bible to all people worldwide. It is only with the help of these faithful writers that much of Bible House of Grace exists as it does today.
