Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

Citizens of Heaven and Sojourners of the Earth.

- Psalm 119:17-20: Deal bountifully with your servant, that I may live and keep your word. ¹⁸ Open my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of your law. ¹⁹ I am a sojourner on the earth; hide not your commandments from me! ²⁰ My soul is consumed with longing for your rules at all times.

Some think the greatest sign of great faith is performing miracles, but before God the following words of this young man:

- May I live and keep your word.
- Open my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of your law.
- Hide not your commandments from me.
- My soul is consumed with longing for your rules at all times.

These statements are a far greater manifestation of faith. For those who think this is not a true statement, ponder for a moment, what a great witness and testimony to the world the church and the Christian faith would be if every Christian priest, minister pastor, and all who attend churches, and all who confess to believe in Christ had the same passionate heartfelt desire as this young man had, and how beautiful the global body of Christ would, appear to the world.

I am a sojourner on the earth: (v19), everyone who has the faith of Abraham, the father of faith, who went by faith to live in a foreign land of promise, looking forward to the city that has foundations, whose designer and builder is God (Heb. 11:9-10), are heirs of the righteousness that comes by faith, and are all sojourners on earth, and not citizens of this world, for their citizenship is a heavenly citizenship, and not a worldly one.

The apostle Paul wrote:

- Our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, (Philippians 3:20)
- So, then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God. (Ephesians 2:19).

As the founder of Bible House of Grace, I would like to thank the many Christian scholars, commentators and theologians who have gone before me, and the many today, who have freely made available their works to enhance the knowledge of the Bible to all people worldwide. It is only with the help of these faithful writers that much of Bible House of Grace exists as it does today.
