Confirmation Bias

and why false

Teaching Spreads

(2019)

Bible House of Grace contains an easy to read New and Old Testament commentary full of spiritual treasures and pearls, complete with an insightful resource guide illuminating God's love and grace.

Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

Confirmation Bias, and why False Teaching Spreads.

One of the prime reasons false teachings spread, is because of confirmation bias. It is because people who have a strong passion and love for something and are strongly committed to it, tend to have what is commonly known as, confirmation bias.

Confirmation bias refers to those who:

- Only seek out information that supports their belief, while ignoring any evidence that contradicts that belief.
- When given evidence contrary to what they believe, they dig their heels even further into the ground, with a strong determination they are going to be right whatever it takes, rather than take a moment to openly minded revisit their position or question their belief, they are determined not to move their position.
- After hearing something contrary to what they believe, their immediate response is to attack, and defend, rather than listen and hear what a person is saying, and then respond accordingly.

Though we are all prone to a certain level of confirmation bias, most who have a strong and forceful confirmation bias, are found in religious and political groups.

As the founder of Bible House of Grace, I would like to thank the many Christian scholars, commentators and theologians who have gone before me, and the many today, who have freely made available their works to enhance the knowledge of the Bible to all people worldwide. It is only with the help of these faithful writers that much of Bible House of Grace exists as it does today.
