Cross of Calvary

and the words placed over

Jesus Head

(2019)

Bible House of Grace contains an easy to read New and Old Testament commentary full of spiritual treasures and pearls, complete with an insightful resource guide illuminating God's love and grace.

Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

Cross of Calvary and Words Placed over Jesus Head.

Sceptics say that the Bible is in error, because the title placed over Jesus' head reads differently in the book of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. This is foolishness and a vain attempt to support their arguments that the Bible is full of contradictions. of course, it is not going to be exactly word for word because each book is written by four different authors. Common sense will see that though they may use different words they all say the same thing which is; 'Jesus is the King of the Jews.'

Many people have been taught that the Bible is the inspired Word of God and therefore every single word is inspired, but this is a mistaken idea, certainly the Bible contains the inspired Word of God, but it is the messages the individual words teach that is inspired, not the individual words themselves. Individual words form sentences and paragraphs etc., it is the messages that are taught by these sentences and a paragraph when individual words are put together. There are many Bibles that use different words, but all teach the same message, it is these messages that are inspired by God.

If it was the individual words that were inspired the Bible could never be translated into other languages (i.e., Chinese, Mexican, Russian etc.), because many of these languages do not have the same individual words that the English language does, added to this the original Manuscripts are written in Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek, so none of us would be reading the inspired Word of God but the good news is that every language on planet earth can use their own language and individual words to translate the messages that God has spoken.

As the founder of Bible House of Grace, I would like to thank the many Christian scholars, commentators and theologians who have gone before me, and the many today, who have freely made available their works to enhance the knowledge of the Bible to all people worldwide. It is only with the help of these faithful writers that much of Bible House of Grace exists as it does today.
