Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

The Earth Trembled.

When the expression 'the earth trembled' is used in the context of battles, it can refer to the following four things:

1. Literal earthquakes.
2. The dread, panic, and terror, that the LORD struck into the hearts of Israel's enemies as He went before His people.
3. The thunder of multitudes of horses galloping to war with massive and fierce armies following.
4. The fierceness of a vast and extensive battle in which thousands are slaughtered in a day.

In Psalms we read:

- The earth quaked (shook in KJV), the heavens dropped (poured down rain in KJV) at God's presence and of Sinai being moved at His presence when Israel was in the wilderness. (Psalm 68:7-8).

In Isaiah it is written:

- When Israel was not looking for God, He did awesome things (terrible things in KJV) and came down, and the mountains quaked (flowed down in KJV) at His presence. (Isaiah 64:3).

In Habakkuk it is written:

- When God stood and measured the earth; he looked and shook (drove asunder in KJV) the nations; then the eternal mountains were scattered; the everlasting hills sank low (did bow in KJV). (Hab. 3:6).

Psalms, Isaiah and Habakkuk show us that the following expressions can be used literally or figuratively.

- The earth trembled.
- The mountains quaked.
- The mountains shook.
- The mountains moved.
- The heavens poured down rain.

As the founder of Bible House of Grace, I would like to thank the many Christian scholars, commentators and theologians who have gone before me, and the many today, who have freely made available their works to enhance the knowledge of the Bible to all people worldwide. It is only with the help of these faithful writers that much of Bible House of Grace exists as it does today.
