A Heavenly Courtroom

(2019)

Bible House of Grace contains an easy to read New and Old Testament commentary full of spiritual treasures and pearls, complete with an insightful resource guide illuminating God's love and grace.

Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

A Heavenly Courtroom.

Imagine for a moment you are watching a jury of angels sitting in a heavenly courtroom listening to two confessing Christian men standing before a judge. The first man believes that Jesus is the Son of God and God Himself, while the second man believes that Jesus is the Son of God, but not God Himself. The Judge asks the first man, "Why did you believe Jesus was God?" He replies, "Because there are a few Scriptures that seem to imply that Jesus is God." The judge replies, "But there are multitudes of verses that clearly say that Jesus is the Son of God have you considered the following:

- Jesus constantly said, he was the Son of God and the apostles taught that he was the Son of God.
- Jesus and the apostles never once said he was God.
- Jesus always called himself the Son of God or the Son of man and never once said he was God the Son.
- To be saved, all Scriptures proclaim, a sinner must believe that Jesus is the Son of God.
- There is not one verse in the entire Bible that says a sinner must believe Jesus is God to be saved.
- Jesus relationship to the Father clearly shows that Jesus is the Son of God, since even God's creation itself teaches that a son can never become his own father and the father never becomes his own son.

After pointing these facts out the judge asks the man, "So why would you believe a few obscure verses that you thought, were teaching Jesus was God when there is so much overwhelming and very clear evidence that conflict with it and a multitude of clear Scriptures that proclaim Jesus is the Son of God."

Then the Judge turns to the second man and asks, "Why did you believe, Jesus was the Son of God and not God Himself?"

The second man says "Because there are multitudes of Scriptures that say, Jesus is the Son of God, Jesus constantly said he was the Son of God and the apostles taught that Jesus was the Son of God. Jesus and the apostles never once said he was God and Jesus always called himself the Son of God and never God the Son, besides all this there is not one Scripture in the entire Bible that says, Jesus is God and all Scripture proclaim that for a sinner to be saved they must believe that Jesus is the Son of God and there is not one verse that says, a sinner must believe Jesus is God to be saved.

Added to all this Jesus relationship to the Father clearly shows that he is the Son of God, so why would I believe a few obscure verses that some people thought, were teaching Jesus was God when there is so much overwhelming and clear evidence that conflict with it and a multitude of Scriptures that proclaim Jesus is the Son of God.

Which of the two men's defense do you think the jury of angels would give more credence to?
