Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

An Angel called with a Loud Voice to Four Angels.

In the following verse (and many others) we read of an angel calling out with a loud voice.

- And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree. ² And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea. (Rev. 7:1-2).

Whenever an angel is said to speak with a loud voice, it is not because those who he is speaking to is a great distance away, but to magnify the great importance of what is being said.

Four corners of the earth: signifies the entire planet, (i.e., north south, east and west).

Four winds blowing together: signifies a dreadful and widespread destruction.

The sea and the trees: are most likely mentioned, because they are the objects that are most disturbed and damaged by the wind of a storm.

Trees planted: signify the faithful for they will stand the test of faith, which is why they are often likened to trees planted by fresh water, that continually bears fruit and that will stand against the wind no matter how violent.

0

Trees that will be uprooted: signify the wicked and pretenders for they will be cast away, which is why they are likened to trees that will be uprooted and carried away by the wind.
