The Beast will Eat the Prostitutes Flesh. (Rev. 17).

---

- Revelation 17:16-18: And the ten horns that you saw, they and the beast will hate the prostitute. They will make her desolate and naked, and devour her flesh (eat her flesh in KJV) and burn her up with fire.

The expression, "eat her flesh," may be taken from:

- The ancient practice of cannibals eating the flesh of their enemies slain in battle.
- From wild animals eating dead bodies lying on a battle field.

The statement, "burn her with fire," in this context would carry the idea that after the woman's flesh was eaten, what remained would be thrown into a fire and burned. The enormously striking image of this formidable religious power denotes the following two things:

- God's absolute distain toward this false religious power.
- The absolute and total-destruction of this prostitute woman.

The ten horns signify the final antichristian beast nations, while the prostitute woman signifies, the Roman Papal Church and all religions aligned with her. The scenario the Scriptures teach is of the prostitute woman (i.e., the Roman Papal Church) enticing the ten horned beast nations into sending their armies up against Christ, who currently is ruling as King of kings and Lord of lords from Jerusalem.

Christ destroys their armies, which results in the government of the ten horned beast nations turning against the prostitute woman, and bringing her to utter ruin. This final battle, is very similar to when Jesus first came, for it was the religious leaders who enticed Rome to put Him to death, but this time He is not coming as the Lamb to be slaughtered, but as the King of kings and Lord of lords to conquer.

NOTE: the number ten is the number of completion, and as such, it is not necessary take it as a literal number, for it may simply signify the completion of God's final plan for the world as we know it, especially since the antichristian ten horned beast nations, will be the final worldly nations.
