Come
Up to Heaven

(2019)

Bible House of Grace contains an easy to read New and Old Testament commentary full of spiritual treasures and pearls, complete with an insightful resource guide illuminating God's love and grace.

Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

Come Up to Heaven.

- Revelation 4:1: After this I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven! And the first voice, which I had heard speaking to me like a trumpet, said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this." ² At once I was in the Spirit, and behold, a throne stood in heaven, with one seated on the throne.

The words, "come up here," do not mean that John ascended from the isle of Patmos in his physical body, but that he was called up in the spirit or in a visionary way. It carries the idea, as he looked up, it was not with the eyes of his body he saw, but with the eyes of his mind, it means he beheld things in a visionary way, as the prophets did when they had visions.

Visions can come in the following two ways:

1. As a movie played out on the imagination of the mind.
2. As a movie that passes before the eyes, much like a hologram.

Naturally God is in total control of the vision and what the prophet sees.

As the founder of Bible House of Grace, I would like to thank the many Christian scholars, commentators and theologians who have gone before me, and the many today, who have freely made available their works to enhance the knowledge of the Bible to all people worldwide. It is only with the help of these faithful writers that much of Bible House of Grace exists as it does today.
