Does it Matter were the Kingdom will Be?

(2020)

Bible House of Grace contains an easy to read New and Old Testament commentary full of spiritual treasures and pearls, complete with an insightful resource guide illuminating God's love and grace.

Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

Does it Matter Where the Kingdom will Be?

The New Testament gives no detail concerning the Kingdom of God, and the shape and form it will be, and makes no mention of the promised land of Canaan, the entire focus of every chapter is Christ or some aspect, feature or characteristic concerning him (i.e., genealogy, birth, death, resurrection, and salvation etc.), and how believers should live.

I suspect the New Testament is silent on the promised land of Canaan, because no matter how good our knowledge is of it, this knowledge has no power to save, for it is Christ who saves us, which is why the apostles and Paul set their entire focus upon Him and eternal life.

Consider the following if you are:

- Raised from the dead, and have an immortal eternal sin free body.
- Are with the Lord you love, and with faithful brothers and sisters.
- Are in a paradise world full of joy, where there is no suffering, sorrow, sickness, and money problems.
- You never have to struggle to survive.

Would you really care where that place is, I suspect, most of us would answer this question, saying, "if I am with Christ, I am content." This I believe is why the central focus of the entire New Testament is Christ, rather than the promised land of Canaan.

As the founder of Bible House of Grace, I would like to thank the many Christian scholars, commentators and theologians who have gone before me, and the many today, who have freely made available their works to enhance the knowledge of the Bible to all people worldwide. It is only with the help of these faithful writers that much of Bible House of Grace exists as it does today.
