Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

Envy.

Envy refers to those:

- Who have a feeling of discontent, or a resentful longing aroused by envying someone else's possessions, qualities, or fame, success, and fortune.
- Who desire to have a quality of life that others have, or possession or some other desirable thing belonging to someone else.
- Who have a covetous regard to another person's advantages, success, and possessions, etc.
- Who have a painful or resentful awareness of an advantage enjoyed by another joined with a deep desire to possess the same advantage.

It, embraces such things as jealousy, enviousness, covetousness, and malice.
