Idolaters

(2019)

Bible House of Grace contains an easy to read New and Old Testament commentary full of spiritual treasures and pearls, complete with an insightful resource guide illuminating God's love and grace.

Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

Idolaters.

---

Idolaters refers:

- To those who worship images and pagan gods.
- To those who pay homage and do service to an idol of that god.
- To conjurers (those who call upon or summon a spirit, demon, god or other supernatural agent for knowledge of the unknown).
- To necromancers.
- To those who worship the virgin Mary, and the exalted departed who the Roman Catholic Church has exalted to sainthood.
- To dealers with familiar spirits. In ancient times familiar spirits were sometimes referred to as animal guides that were believed to be supernatural entities that would assist witches and cunning folk in their practice of magic. According to the records of the time, they could appear disguised as an animal, or as a human or as humanoid (i.e., a being resembling a human in its shape), that could appear with vivid color or as smoky ghosts with undefined forms.
- To serving witches, in ancient times witches were by some thought to be malevolent (i.e., evil, and malicious), and by others thought of as being benevolent. Amongst religious folk some viewed witches as demons, while others viewed them to be sorcerers and false prophets.
- To all who give themselves over to ancient pagan gods, modern day spiritual identities and occult practises, heretics, and apostates.
- To those who give themselves over to the latter days man of lawlessness (man of sin in KJV), the son of destruction (perdition in KJV) (1 John 2:22), meaning son of disaster, ruin, and destruction (2 Thess. 2:1-4).
- To those who receive the mark of the beast and align themselves with the final hostile antichristian world.
