Jesus walks in the midst of His People

(2019)

Bible House of Grace contains an easy to read New and Old Testament commentary full of spiritual treasures and pearls, complete with an insightful resource guide illuminating God's love and grace.

Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

Jesus walks in the Midst of His People.

John was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day (Rev. 1:10–11), and a loud voice told him to write what he is about to see in a book and send it to the following seven churches:

1. Ephesus.
2. Smyrna.
3. Pergamum.
4. Thyatira.
5. Sardis.
6. Philadelphia.
7. Laodicea.

- Revelation 1:12: Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking to me, and on turning I saw seven golden lampstands, ¹³ and in the midst of the lampstands one like a son of man, clothed with a long robe and with a golden sash around his chest.

The golden lampstands signify, Christian churches, the picture here is of Christ, walking amongst the churches, which means he walks with his people when they are gathered-together and when they are alone, by his Spirit, his word, his love, his comfort, his joy, and his grace. It also means the Lord knows everything about his people, he knows:

- Our emotional state and tribulations.
- Our devotional life, morality, and integrity.
- Our every secret thought and activity.
- Our joy, pain, weakness, and strength.

It also means He is in our house, car and at work with us, which means those in Christ cannot escape him. Wherever we walk Christ is walking with us, observing all that we do, our actions, conversations, and our thoughts, he knows details and things about us that no one else does. Since not one of us is totally free of sin and the passions of the flesh, this truth can be enormously frightening, but all should take comfort in the truth, Christ will not blot the names of the redeemed who are clothed in his righteousness and covered with God's grace who faithfully endure in faith to his glorious return from the Book of Life; but will confess their name before his Father and before His angels, and embrace them into his eternal Kingdom on the glorious day of his return.

Now here is the good news: as we walk in this present mortal world of darkness, all who are by faith in Christ are in this present world clothed in his righteousness, but when raised to eternal life, will no longer need to be clothed in the righteous robes of Jesus garments, for there will be no stain or trace of sin within us, our entire being will be pure and holy.

As the founder of Bible House of Grace, I would like to thank the many Christian scholars, commentators and theologians who have gone before me, and the many today, who have freely made available their works to enhance the knowledge of the Bible to all people worldwide. It is only with the help of these faithful writers that much of Bible House of Grace exists as it does today.
