Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

The Long Day of Grace and Long Day of Death.

- Peter 3:9: The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance.

By not punishing us with immediate death, God formed a way of mercy toward all mankind (even for the lowliest of Adams children) so that all would have a long day of grace, and an opportunity to reflect, repent and return to God. No one should think God has forgotten them, He is patient desiring that all would be saved. At this present time, it could be said that we are living in three very long days

1. Firstly, the long day of death.
2. Secondly, the long day of grace.
3. Thirdly, the long day of God's patience and longsuffering.

The sentence of death from heaven hangs over us all. This slow execution of mankind can be viewed as the long day of death and as the long day of grace which gives us all an opportunity to reflect, repent and return to God. At the end of this long day of death and long day of grace, an awesome and breath-taking day will come when Christ will return in glory as King of kings and Lord of lords to establish Gods Kingdom of righteousness, justice, joy and peace on earth, and the long day we are now living in will come to an end, and the faithful in Christ who have endured through this long day will be raised to glory, and everlasting joy.

As the founder of Bible House of Grace, I would like to thank the many Christian scholars, commentators and theologians who have gone before me, and the many today, who have freely made available their works to enhance the knowledge of the Bible to all people worldwide. It is only with the help of these faithful writers that much of Bible House of Grace exists as it does today.
