It explains the difference between the Spirit and the flesh and gives an insight into the meaning of heavenly places.

Superstition or Faith

What is the difference between superstition and Christian faith? People have always believed there are many gods and even died for them. This article answers the question, who are these gods? Are they real? Where do they exist and how do they gain such tremendous power over peoples minds? What is it that convinces people that the God they believe in is the only true God? Should God be personal to Christian's and should they trust the emotional feelings they experience? Superstition or Christian faith will show how to spiritually grow closer to God, feel His presence and His love. God wants Christians to have a relationship with Him, but without the power spoken of in this article some Christians faith maybe like a golden tap without water, dry and useless.

Being Set Free from Religious Works

Paul contrasts the flesh with the Spirit and shines a floodlight on the glory, majesty and wonder of God's abundant grace which is without walls, limits and boundaries. He talks about people who have been set free from adhering to all forms of ceremonial rites, holy days and religious customs and traditions, being accepted into God's family and loved by God and warns those who continue to hold fast to religious works that they are in danger of being rejected from God's Kingdom.

Jesus is God's gift of Grace

This glorious and majestic chapter speaks of people who mutilate the flesh; of others being blameless; of Jesus being God's gift of grace; of putting no confidence in the flesh; of not having our own righteousness; of sharing in Christ's sufferings; of becoming like Christ in his death; of being resurrected from the dead; of Christ making men and women his-own; of having our citizenship in heaven; of awaiting a Saviour and King and so much more.

I can do all things through Christ who Strengthens Me

This glorious and majestic chapter contains two of Paul's most misunderstood and misquoted Scriptures, the first of these is, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me" and the second is, "My God will supply every need according to his riches in glory." Paul also talks about having a peaceful and content mind in contrast to being filled with anxiety, worry and fear.
