Teach it, don't demand it.

INTRODUCTION: in the book of Exodus, God fulfilled His promise to Abraham by multiplying Abraham's descendants into a great nation delivering them from slavery in Egypt to journey to the Promised Land, and then binding them to Himself with a covenant at Mount Sinai. Moses, under the direct command of God and as leader of Israel, received the Ten Commandments from God, along with other laws governing Israel's life and worship. He also led the nation in building the Tabernacle, a place where God's presence can dwell among his people and where they can make sacrifices for sin.

Most Jews and Christians recognise Moses as the author, writing sometime after the Exodus from Egypt (about 1445 B.C.). Note: the promise God made to Abraham will be perfectly fulfilled when Christ returns in glory and all those (Jews and Gentiles) who belong to God's Kingdom are gathered to him. (See also the introduction to chapter one).

Exodus 26.

This chapter is all about the construction of the tabernacle and the making of the curtains. Everything was to be made according to the pattern that the LORD had given Moses on Mount Sinai.

- A veil of blue, purple, scarlet and fine linen with cherubim's sown into it is to be made and hung to separate the Holy Place from the Most Holy.
 - The LORD'S testimony (i.e., the LORD'S covenant, rules and statutes given to Moses on Mount Sinai) was to be placed in the Ark.
 - The mercy seat was to be placed on the ark of the testimony and placed behind the veil in the Most Holy Place.
 - The table was to be placed outside the veil in the Holy Place with the lampstand to give light placed opposite it.

End.
