God used Men and Women Who had Human Flaws.

(2019)

Bible House of Grace contains an easy to read New and Old Testament commentary full of spiritual treasures and pearls, complete with an insightful resource guide illuminating God's love and grace.

Although I believe my aim is pure and God's will perfect this document is still the product of a human man, as to such I neither claim perfect knowledge or perfect understanding.

God used Men and Women who had Human Flaws.

INTRODUCTION

The following list shines a spotlight on the truth that the flaws within in a man or woman's character or the doubts they have about themselves or difficult circumstances do not prevent God from working through their life or using them for His eternal purposes.

- Abraham ----- Was old.
- Jacob ----- Was insecure.
- Leah ----- Was unattractive.
- Joseph ----- Was abused.
- Moses ----- Was not an eloquent speaker.
- Gideon ----- Was poor.
- Samson ----- Was codependent.
- Rahab ----- Was immoral.
- David ----- Had an affair and all kinds of family problems.
- Elijah ----- Was suicidal.
- Jeremiah ----- Was depressed.
- Jonah ----- Was reluctant.
- Naomi ----- Was a widow.
- John the Baptist ----- Was eccentric to say the least.
- Peter ----- Was impulsive and hot-tempered.
- Martha ----- Worried a lot.
- The Samaritan woman -- Had several failed marriages.
- Zaccheus ----- Was unpopular.
- Thomas ----- Had doubts.
- Paul ----- Had poor health.
- Timothy ----- Was timid.

That's quite a variety of misfits but God used each of them. Obviously this list shows that human flaws do not prevent God from achieving His eternal plan and purposes, but since our flaws can bring a bad testimony to God, the Lord Jesus Christ and the Christian faith every brother and sister in Christ should endeavor to do all they can to live a life that honors God and brings a good testimony to Christ and the Christian faith.
